

Eats, experiences & city finds.

A visual diary by Shia, finding the places and everyday moments worth sharing.

A little taste of the city.

I'm Shia, a Toronto food and lifestyle creator. I make short Reels about new cafés, date spots and city finds across the GTA, from Mississauga to Oakville.

I film what a menu can't tell you: the room, the first bite, and the moment the table goes quiet.
